Correction: Small-Molecule Inhibitors of Acetyltransferase p300 Identified by High-Throughput Screening Are Potent Anticancer Agents

In this article (Mol Cancer Ther; 2013;12:610–20), which appeared in the May 2013 issue of Molecular Cancer Therapeutics (1), the authors regret that there are two errors related to author information to correct: (i) The zip code for the corresponding author is incorrect. The correct zip code is 32610. (ii) Peter Chase, who conducted the high-throughput screen for this project, was inadvertently omitted as an author in this article.
